the development of their squads that they may make the best possible showing. At present it seems that Central, Western and Tech will make a close fight of it, though Central has much the largest and most experienced squad. It is not so evident, though, that Central will make the clean-up anticipated during the winter. Central is still the favorite and will continue to be until the meet, even though it fails to win, but it will have to work for everything it gets, and work hard.

Tech is going to lose the shot-put in all probability, while the only running event in which Central seems to have a solid hold is the quarter. Central ought to have an easy victory in the pole vault, possibly the high jump, and an even chance in the broad jump. The seconds and thirds will be the factors in deciding the champion-ships, in all likelihood, and it is in this that Central will star. Central may not get as many first places as expected two months ago, but it is sure to be good for enough seconds and thirds to warrant a prediction in its favor. the series with the New York Americans yesterday by winning the last game of the series, 3 to 1.

Commerce won from Bureau in the Government League by 12 to 10. Better fielding and superior hitting were responsible for the larger score gotten by Commerce.

Both lead-off men got three hits each. Creditor, for Commerce, made three out of five trips to the plate and Roche of Bureau had the same record.

It was a hard game for McDonough of Bureau to lose, as he fanned twelve men, especially after it appeared at one stage as if Bureau might win. #### BASE BALL BRIEFS.

Catcher William Meyer, formerly with the Chicago White Sox, has been se-cured by the Davenport Three-I club. Vince Weising, who had been secured from Kansas City to do backstop work, was returned to that club.

Arlie Latham, if any one wants to know, is running a delicatessen store in New York city. He says he is bat-ting only .150 in business so far, but he expects to do better when he gets onto the curves of the new game.

Charles Sisson, who has played the outfield for Elmira for the past two seasons, has drawn his unconditional release. Gus Schmidt, who has been earried on the Elmira list for two years, though he failed to report, also has been turned loose. The McAlester Club of the Western Association has released Manager Rudy Kling and put Catcher Phil Ketter in charge. Kling could not take an active part in the game because of bad legs, and the club could not afford a bench manager.

telegram reaching here just after noon today disclosed the members of the Velvet Kind team, have gone into first place in the doubles in the bowling in the Atlantic coast tourney at Boston. The count registered by anything yet recorded, as they knocked down 707 pins. When it is considered that the pins being used in the tourney, and also the balls, are smaller than those with which the players have been rolling here all winter, the set of 707 seems rather phenomenal and likely to give the local men first place in that class.

103 207 In the Muskogee-McAlester game of April 25 passes were issued to twenty batsmen and twenty-seven men were left on basses. The game took three hours to play, and the score was 2 to 1, neither team being able to hit when it got men on bases. Johnson, for McAlester, struck out eleven men and was guilty of giving nine of the twenty passes, besides hitting a man.

George Stallings must fear Pat Moran, after all, for it is noted that he has picked Patrick out for a quarrel. Moran is accused of tipping off several Boston players to the fact that Stallings had asked waivers on them, thus making them dissatisfied. The story smells like fish that haven't been icc.
